HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE D.S.R.VARMA

CIVIL REVISION PETITION No.1361 of 2003

ORAL JUDGMENT:

Heard.

Challenging the quantum of compensation awarded by the Principal District Judge-cum-Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Nalgonda (for brevity "the Tribunal"), in O.P.No.1377 of 2000, by the order, dated 27.09.2002, wherein and whereunder a sum of Rs.8,000/- was awarded as compensation for the injuries sustained by the petitioner therein, in a road accident that occurred on 09.08.2000, the Oriental Insurance Company Limited filed the present Civil Revision Petition.

The particulars of the accident i.e., the method and manner in which it occurred and the aspect of negligence etc., are not in dispute and hence, they are not referred to. The quantum of compensation awarded to the claimant is only under challenge in this Revision.

The Tribunal, after considering the evidence, both oral and documentary, on record, awarded a sum of Rs.8,000/- which is very marginal. Therefore, on the ground of triviality, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the Tribunal. Further, it is to be seen that nobody was examined on behalf of the insurer before the Tribunal. On this count also, the order of the Tribunal has to be sustained.

In the result, the Civil Revision Petition is dismissed. However, there shall be no order as to costs.

_____

JUSTICE D.S.R.VARMA

19th August 2010

dr